1. go to the page and edit with elementor.
2. Next to the Save/update button there is a small arrow button. Click that.
3. Now click save as template.
4. Give the template a name.
5. Now go to the wp dashboard and go to my templates.
6. Export the page template you just made.
7. On the new site go to the my templates section and import the page template you made.
