- 1. go to the page and edit with elementor.
- 2. Next to the Save/update button there is a small arrow button. Click that.
- 3. Now click save as template.
- 4. Give the template a name.
- 5. Now go to the wp dashboard and go to my templates.
- 6. Export the page template you just made.
- 7. On the new site go to the my templates section and import the page template you made.
